

A diagram illustrating a region in the plane. A thick, dark red, irregular closed curve encloses a central area. Inside this region, there are two points marked with red dots. The point on the left is labeled with the Greek letter μ (mu) below it. The point on the right is labeled with $\hat{\theta}$ (theta-hat) to its right.